

Marilyn Rausch, you have been invited to:

Broadening Vision 2013

Young Life is still growing to meet the changing needs of people; this is why we are calling it a "Broadening Vision". We would appreciate your participation in an evening where this vision is shared around a tasty dinner which is being paid for by donors who deeply believe in the vision. At the conclusion of the evening, we will be asking you to partner with Young Life to bring this vision to fruition.
